Comments Report

1. General Observations

1.10) Please highlight any specific examples of excellent teaching on this module.

- Adelina is good at engaging each member of the lectures/seminars in discussion, which encourages me to be more attentive
- Despite the fact that the lecture was fully online, the lecturer was very articulate and showed genuine concern for all students to be involved.
  The lecturer used reminders every day to inform students of a class, which was very thoughtful and unique.
  The lecturer created a safe space for expression.
- The use of case studies for every topic allowed an easier understanding of application of theory. As a module taught online it was kept engaging all the way through, and felt that in no way did we miss out on material or teaching from it being taught in this way, which other modules might of struggled.

1.11) What improvements could be made to this module in the areas highlighted above?

- None that come to mind
- Not Applicable. This module was excellently covered
